Dantzick, April 17.

ON the 15th Inſtant in the Evening three Swediſh Frigates and five armed Barks came to an Anchor in this Road; their Deſign was to attack three Muſcovite Ships of War, commanded by M. Wilbois, which had for a long time interrupted the Navigation and Commerce of the Swedes with this Port. As ſoon as the Muſcovites had ſight of them, they retired from the Mouth of the Viſtula towards this City. Yeſterday in the Evening the Swediſh Ships came up the River likewiſe with great Difficulty, the Wind being contrary. Upon this Occaſion this Town obſerved an exact Neutrality, ſuffering both the Swedes and Muſcovites to paſs without Oppoſition before the Fort called the Munde, and refuſing to let the Muſcovite Commadore come within the Boom. The Swediſh Commadore being deſired by our Magiſtrates not to proceed immediately to Extremities, granted M. Wilbois 24 Hours time to take his Reſolution either to leave this Port or to fight. To-Day the Muſcovites capitulated with the Swedes; who in favour of this City, and for preventing the ill Conſequences which might happen to it, in caſe of an Engagement in our Road, (there being a Convention ſubſiſting between the Czar and this City) agreed not only to let them retire, but promiſed to let them be 48 Hours out at Sea before they would chaſe or endeavour to attack them. General Jagozinsky his Czariſh Majeſty's Miniſter arrived here ſome Days ago, and is to proceed with a Commiſſion to the Court of Vienna. Our laſt Letters from Poland give us ſome Expectation that his Poliſh Majeſty will come and ſpend Part of the Summer here: The great Treaſurer is expected here To-Morrow.

Hambourg, April 23. The Gentlemen ſent by the King of Sweden to notify to ſeveral Courts his Advancement to the Throne, arrived here ſome Days ago. On the 21ſt Count Teſſin proceeded from hence for the Court of Great Britain, as did Yeſterday Count Lewenhaupt for Vienna, Count Spens for Paris, Baron Duben for Caſſel, and General Horn for Berlin; and we are expecting General Trautfetter, who goes with the like Commiſſion to the Court of Poland. Baron Kniphauſen, his Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter arrived here Yeſterday in his Return from Stockholm, and will forthwith proceed on his Journey for Berlin. The laſt Letters from Petersbourg of the 5th of this Month adviſe, that M. Stambke was expected there, and it was rumoured the Deſign of his coming was to negotiate a Marriage between the Duke of Holſtein, and the Princeſs Anne the Czar's eldeſt Daughter.

Copenhagen, April 23. Captain Gruner being ſent Expreſs by the King of Denmark with Diſpatches for Major General Lewenohrn his Majeſty's Miniſter at Stockholm, it is hoped the Negotiation of Peace between this Crown and that of Sweden will ſoon be brought to a happy Iſſue.

Hague, April 30. The Count de Rechteren is arrived here, to ſollicit on the behalf of his Brother, that the Sentence given by the Council of State againſt him and the Field-Officers of the Garriſon of Tournay, may if poſſible be reverſed or at leaſt mitigated, alledging that they have been treated with too much Rigour. Count Staremberg, who is appointed Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperour to the Court of Great Britain, is daily expected here: The William and Mary Yacht which is to carry him over, arrived ſome Days ago at Rotterdam. Prince William of Heſſe
